

THE KANSAS CITY STAR

MARGARET TRUMAN IS MAID OF HONOR AT A FRIEND'S WEDDING.

THE BRIDE AND HER ATTENDANTS posed shortly before the ceremony yesterday at the Grace and Holy Trinity cathedral, 415 West Thirteenth street, where Miss Mary Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Shaw, 703 Proctor place, Independence, was married to William Coleman Branton, Kansas City lawyer, with Miss Margaret Truman, daughter of the President, serving as maid of honor. In the photograph, left to right, are Miss Margaret Weltmer, bridesmaid; Miss Truman; Miss Shaw, with Karen Klipp, the flower girl, standing in front of her; Mrs. Dean Carl Klipp, bridesmaid, and Mrs. Charles William Mehernay, matron of honor.

A LAST-MINUTE ADJUSTMENT to the bridal veil is made by Miss Truman, as the group waited for the first strains of the organ playing the wedding march. Dean Claude W. Sprouse read the double ring ceremony—(Kansas City Star photographs).

HSTR CATALOG # 28148
ITEM 2

Today is Post Day

OLIE ATKINS PHOTO

It's tough being the President's daughter

MARGARET TRUMAN can sip a soda in her own home town of Independence without attracting attention. But in Washington she can't appear in public without causing a commotion...can't have a date without starting rumors. She's besieged by social climbers; busybodies want to remodel her clothes, her hair, even her nose. A frank and candid portrait of America's "Second Lady."

by Elise Morrow

Horses should stay out of the living room

—Especially when the living room belongs to your very pernickety landlady. William Fay's new Post Noveltie, complete in today's issue, is a rollicking free-for-all about a young man in love, an honest little crook named Cross-town, a fireman's daughter, a black eye, a $4,500 debt and a retired race horse.

UPTOWN GIRL by William Fay

RUSSIA'S secret arsenal

A former Soviet official and author of the best seller "I Chose Freedom" reveals disturbing new facts about the gigantic arsenal being built in Siberia, Russia, he says, is spending vast sums of money on new military preparations. He explains why she is doing so in this illuminating article
STALIN'S MYSTERY CITIES IN SIBERIA
by Victor A. Kravchenko

He's mid-crazy

Remember the days when agates, etchings and trailers were all-important in your life? You'll relive those days when you read this heart-warming story about a kid named Terry, who lost all his mits but won a lot more important victories.

IT DOESN'T KILL YOU TO LOSE
by Edward W. O'Brien

Last year he made
$1,113,035.00

He's Lee McCree, the man who made Going My Way, and The Bells of St. Mary's. Wait till you read about the new movie he's planning. There are only two characters—and they're Adam and Eve!

GOING HIS WAY
by Pete Martin

Also in this issue

That's Her Blessing — That's Bernice — Hamble Baker writes the success story of Bernice Fitz-Gibson, advertising director of Gimbel's ... The Happy Ending — a love story by Mooser Mauger ... Can France Hold Her Eastern Empire? by George Waller ... plus many other entertaining and enlightening articles, stories, serials and special features, including cartoons and poems.

WHAT'S NEW? For the latest news of products and services, coast millions of Americana — look first to the advertising pages of The Saturday Evening Post.

POST

Coming in December
The Post will publish the
All-American Football Team
SELECTED BY THE AMERICAN FOOTBALL COACHES ASSOCIATION

There's exciting reading for everyone in the Post!

IN JUNIOR LEAGUE BOW

MARGARET TRUMAN MEETS CLUB MEMBERS HERE.

SECRET SERVICE MEN STAND AT DOOR WHILE PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER CHATS WITH FRIENDS IN THE CLUBHOUSE.

The newly-painted walls of the Junior League clubhouse at 107 East Fifty-eighth street resounded with politely modulated chatter yesterday afternoon, when more than 200 members officially welcomed a new group of provisional members and transfers, including the daughter of the President of the United States.

Miss Margaret Truman arrived for the tea accompanied by a childhood friend, also a member, Miss Mary Shaw. They were introduced down the receiving line of forty women by Mrs. Fredric P. Barnes, Miss Truman smiling in spite of the warmth of the small, sun-drenched clubhouse.

LINE INCLUDES PROVISIONAL MEMBERS

The receiving line, headed by Mrs. Ernest A. Dick, president, and Mrs. G. G. Carpenter, membership chairman, included twenty-six provisional members and nine transfer members. Three provisional members were unable to attend.

Provisional members are women accepted into the league subject to a 1-year probationary period. During this period they attend a 2-week training course of lectures on parliamentary law, league history and volunteer services and tours of Kansas City institutions.

Miss Truman became a provisional member of the Washington league this spring, but was unable to attend the training course. She is expected to take the course here beginning tomorrow. Following the course, an examination is given, which a provisional member must pass in order to remain in the league.

GUARD FEAR NO HARM

While Miss Truman chatted with former acquaintances and new members, the secret service agent assigned to her waited outside the

Thursday morning
Madeline Thomas
arrived, representing Treas.

NEW MEMBERS FOR THE JUNIOR LEAGUE. the largest group in the organization's history, were introduced yesterday at a tea at the league clubhouse, 107 East Fifty-eighth street. Attending the tea was Miss Margaret Truman, a provisional member in the Washington league. Twenty-nine Kansas City members were in the receiving line. They are left to right seated on floor: Miss Pauline Butler and Miss Margaret Hendren; second row, Mrs. Robert L. McMenamy, Jr., seated on arm of chair; Mrs. Kenneth Stephany, Mrs. Frank Newcomer, Jr., Miss Kate Roberts, Miss Hope Christopher (all seated on chairs); Miss Beatrice Bucking and Miss Elizabeth Eby (both on right arm of chair), and standing, Miss Joan Jenkins, Miss Gayle Gray, Miss Barbara Hall, Miss Nancy Pindexter, Miss Virginia Gabel, Miss Allene Snyder, Mrs. Paul C. Givens, Jr., Mrs. Elizabeth Ryland, Mrs. Paul Van Osdol, Jr., Mrs. Leon B. Edelson, Miss Ann Wallace, Miss Joyce Woodbury, Mr. Eddie Hunter, Miss Janice Woodbury, Miss Margaret Ivey, Miss John Purdy and Mrs. Howard A. Austin, Jr. Three unable to attend were Miss Mary Helen Black, Mrs. Preston Shamer and Miss Gloria Snyder.—(Kansas City Star photograph).

RESTING FOR A MOMENT AFTER A LONG RECEIVING LINE . . . MISS MARGARET TRUMAN PAUSES WITH A CHILDHOOD FRIEND, MISS MARY SHAW, AT A JUNIOR LEAGUE TEA YESTERDAY AFTERNOON . . . MISS TRUMAN JOINED THE WASHINGTON LEAGUE THIS SPRING—(Kansas City Star photograph).

don, apparently assured that no harm could come in the President's daughter in that company of women.

As did most of the younger bat, Miss Truman wore her blond hair braided back in page-boy style. Black gloves, pouch purse and shorts completed her outfit.

This is the thirty-fourth group of provisional members, and the largest in the Kansas City league's history. The recently reorganized mount, customarily used for luncheon meetings, proved too small for the first party since reorganization.

* PROVISIONAL MEMBERS *

Provisional members this year are: Mrs. Howard A. Austin, Jr., Miss Pauline Butler, Miss Beatrice Bucking, Miss Hope Christopher, Mrs. Elizabeth Ryland, Mrs. John B. McMenamy, Jr., Mrs. Virginia Gabel, Miss Gayle Gray, Mrs. Paul C. Givens, Jr., Mrs. Barbara Hall, Miss Margaret Hendren, Mrs. Estelle Hibbs, Miss Margaret Ivey, Miss Joan Jenkins, Mrs. Robert L. McMenamy, Jr., Mrs. Frank Newcomer, Jr., Miss Nancy Pindexter, Miss Joan Purdy, Miss Kate Roberts, Miss Elizabeth Ryland, Miss Allene Snyder, Mrs. Kenneth Stephany, Mrs. Paul Van Osdol, Jr., Miss Ann Wallace, Miss Janice Woodbury, and Miss Joyce Woodbury. Those unable to attend were Miss Mary Helen Black, Mrs. Preston Shamer, and Miss Gloria Snyder.

Members transferring from leagues in other cities who were introduced yesterday were Mrs. Harrison Newlin, Montclair, N. J.; Mrs. D. W. True, Butte, Mont.; Mrs. Bradley Barr, Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. Richard Merrick, Bestie; Mrs. C. N. Seidell, Jr., Chicago; Mrs. Henry S. Dreher, Topeka; Mrs. Marshall Bills, St. Louis; Mrs. Nell Luxley, Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. George H. Wood, St. Joseph.